

PC Services expands management team

Parsons Construction Services (PC Services) has hired Dave Peach as Contracts Director into their expanding contracts department.

Dave, previously employed as a Project Manager for Warings, has been in the construction industry for over 35 years. He comments 'PC Services is a strong company within the industry with a good reputation and I am delighted to join their team and take on this new challenge'.

His role will consist of managing projects across the diverse range of external and internal construction solutions that PC Services offers including drylining, plastering, rendering and build contracts. Dave will also manage the new build properties developed by Rockbourne Homes, another member of the PC Group.

When Dave is not working, he spends his time refereeing for the local football league and his love for sports does not end there, he is also a keen golfer and badminton player.

About PC Services:

Parsons Construction Services specialises in interior and exterior solutions tailor made to suit projects by specification, timescale and budget. Since 1985 they have provided a comprehensive range of drylining, plastering, flooring and rendering packages for the construction industry.

PC Services is a proactive company based in the South; they are licensed applicators of leading manufacturer's products in the industry. PC Services has also retained the ISO 9001:2000 certification since 2003 demonstrating a quality management system and their continued investment in the company.

PC Services is pleased to announce they are celebrating their 20th anniversary this year. Since their incorporation they have built up strong partners in the industry and are looking forward to continued success and to building more relationships in construction services.
